

BACKS UP STATEMENT BY ORDERING MARINES TO GO

UNITED STATES WILL PUNISH PRESIDENT ZELAYA BY FORCE.

CRISIS DUE IN NICARAGUA

"Prairie" Starts With Seventy Hundred Marines on Board, Plenty of Ammunition and Supplies for Campaign.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 2.—The first step of the United States toward backing up the declaration made by Secretary Knox regarding the Nicaraguan situation was taken today when the secretary of the navy sent urgent orders to the cruiser "Albatross" and the gunboat "Yorktown," two American warships, now at Magdalena Bay, lower California, to proceed forthwith to Corinto, the Pacific coast port of Nicaragua, nearest to the capital of that country.

Rear Admiral Sims left Washington today for Philadelphia to take passage on the "Prairie." It is believed he will take command of the naval forces operating against Nicaragua.

Considered Aggressive.
The most aggressive step yet taken by the United States looking toward the protection of American lives and interests in Nicaragua, was executed today when the cruiser "Albatross" and the gunboat "Yorktown" were ordered to proceed at full speed from Magdalena Bay to Corinto, on the Pacific coast, to Nicaragua.

No French Vessel.
Paris, Dec. 2.—The government denies that any French warship has been sent from Martinique to Nicaragua.

Artillery Rejected.
Washington, D. C., Dec. 2.—There is rejection today in the ranks of the Nicaraguan insurrectionary party and corresponding gloom among Zelaya's friends over the ultimatum handed down by the United States to the Nicaraguan government, in the note which accompanied the passports delivered by Secretary Knox to Felipe Rodriguez, the Nicaraguan charge d'affaires.

Strong Note.
The strength of the note and its personal tone are the subject of comment in diplomatic circles. It is generally recognized that the United States has decided that the time has come to end further attacks on American life and interests in Central America.

Troop Ship Ready.
The troop ship "Prairie" with a detachment of seven hundred marines aboard for Panama and possibly for service in Nicaragua, has received orders to sail from Philadelphia this afternoon.

Well Equipped.
The "Prairie" will also carry two field pieces, 800,000 rounds of ammunition and tons and other equipment for 700 men.

FLAYS ZELAYA IN AN OFFICIAL NOTICE

Washington, Dec. 2.—Secretary Knox handed Honor Rodriguez, the Nicaraguan charge d'affaires, his passport, thus severing diplomatic relations with that country. The United States has assumed charge in Nicaragua and has landed marines. The regular army may follow.

To show its intense anger at the conduct of President Zelaya, the message notifying Rodriguez of the severance of diplomatic relations is the severest denunciation of a ruler that has seldom been equaled in the history of civilized nations.

The personal feeling against Zelaya in the state department is astonishing to those who contemplate that department as a grave and judicial and diplomatic branch of the government. It is not less than the feeling that the former Secretary Root had in the case of Castro, president of Venezuela, when Mr. Root declared that he would have no further negotiations with Castro, as his word was not worth the cable toll that brought it.

Secretary Knox has had the same feeling toward Zelaya. The president of Nicaragua has not only been a disturbing element in Central American affairs, but he has been so unfaithful in the ordinary affairs of state, in the exchange of proposals and promises, that Secretary Knox has become disgusted. In this disgust the president of the United States shares, and it was for that reason that Mr. Knox was told by Mr. Taft to run the affair as he chose and it was eliminated as a subject for cabinet discussion.

Action Supplants Indignation.
Zelaya's regime is characterized in Secretary Knox's note as "a blot upon the history of Nicaragua," and he is charged not only with the unjustifiable killing of Americans, but with exercising a baleful influence upon Honduras, discrediting Costa Rica, Guatemala and Salvador, keeping Central America in a constant state of turmoil, throttling the press and public opinion and impoverishing the people of the two American cities, out of deference to the long suffering people of Nicaragua, but it will be force of arms hold the revolutionists and government responsible for the protection of American life and property.

For the purpose of insuring permanent peace in Central America the United States government will demand of any new government that it to suppress that of Zelaya that it obligate itself to carry out the program of peace under the Root compact.

Warships Ready for Action.
The half-dozen warships which have been stationed in Nicaraguan waters for over a week are ready for action.

It is announced that the diplomatic charge made to the Nicaraguan charge that "the United States is taking such steps as it deems wise and proper for the protection of American interests," can be interpreted in its strongest sense.

Willow cannot be declared without act of congress, the executive has power, and it is his duty, to protect American interests and to keep faith with the South and Central American states in keeping peace under the agreement of 1907. To do this, marines can be landed, and if they are not sufficient to accomplish the purpose, the executive may send United States troops, and that is the plan.

It is believed by officials that at this time there are over 2,000 marines on Nicaraguan soil. More will follow.

Two days ago the navy department said that in the event of necessity 4,000 men could be thrown into Nicaragua within a few hours.

Friendly Support Forthcoming.
Assurances of friendly support have been given the government by several foreign nations, and the warships of Great Britain and France, which have been hurried to the scene, will not interfere with the program which the United States has already outlined to those governments.

President Taft has fully endorsed the methods of punishment which have been arranged for the Zelaya dynasty and it is understood to have been his suggestion that steps should be taken in the settlement of the present difficulty to absolutely insure the future peace of the republics of the south.

The plans for operation, which have been most carefully formulated for several days, became effective upon the receipt of officials' advices from the seat of war, corroborating in every particular the reports of atrocities and indignities of which Zelaya was accused.

Additional information of the rapid growth of the Nicaraguan revolution and fears that open anarchy would follow soon spurred this government to immediate action.

Zelaya Threatens Consul.
It was made clear by state department officials that only one course was open to the United States when it received unquestioned assurances that Zelaya had been guilty not only of murder of American citizens, but that he had acted with the full intention of insulting the United States national honor.

This he accomplished through threatening the life of the American vice-consul, Caldera; misrepresenting conditions, "wildly lying," suppression of official communications to the state department and censoring of other dispatches.

Restless under public criticism of vacillating and inaction on one hand and refusal to whip out a national insult on the other, Secretary Knox has for days been pressing for the information which he deemed essential.

Then a new menace entered the diplomatic equation. This was a reliable report that the racial propaganda started by the Zelaya government was bearing good fruit. He was gaining reinforcements, it was stated, and the hope that Zelaya would be driven to surrender or be forced to flee his country for safety became a remote possibility.

Harrassed upon all sides with prospects of greater harm in case of further delay, the state department decided to cut the Gordian knot of diplomatic entanglement upon receipt of the advices which it had waited so long for.

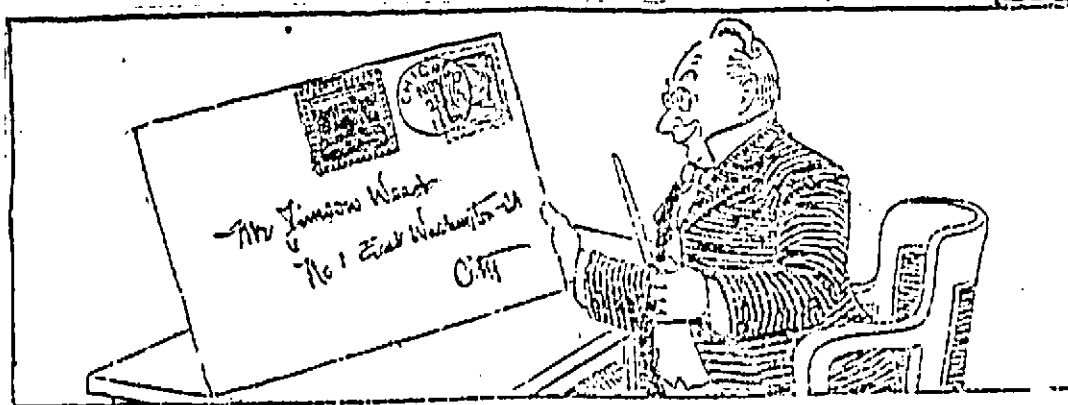

Will Establish Protectorate.
The letter to Rodriguez announcing the severance of relations and giving the information that the United States would move promptly to wipe out the insult to its honor, was then prepared and handed to the Nicaraguan charge. Under the interpretation given the letter to Rodriguez taken in connection with the armed preparations which have already been made, as well as guided by the statements of state department officials that the sending of marines to Nicaragua is a natural consequence of its action, the plan of the United States is plain and simple. It will establish a temporary protectorate over Nicaragua.

It will do with Nicaragua what it did with Cuba—establish a provisional government, no matter who is victorious in the present war.

MAYBRAY GANG TO BE PUT ON TRIAL IN DES MOINES, IA.

Cleverest Band Of Swindlers In Country Now In Jail And Will Go Before U. S. Judge Next Week.

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 2.—When the cases of James C. Maybray and several scores of his associates are taken up for trial at the term of the United States court beginning next week the public will learn for the first time the full detail of what is declared to be the most colossal scheme ever devised to separate the unwary from their money.

For more than a year some of the swiftest men of the United States secret service have been engaged in gathering evidence against the Maybray band. Their investigations have extended to every section of the United States and to Canada and Alaska. From the evidence at hand it would appear that the most successful of the gold-bribe operators in days gone by were but novices in the swindling game as compared with the men who are charged with fleeing their victims of millions through the medium of fake horse races, prize fights, wrestling matches and pedestrian contests.

At Council Bluffs last September the United States Grand Jury for the Southern District of Iowa indicted James C. Maybray and eighty-four associates on a charge of conspiring to defraud through the use of the United States mails. A number of those indicted are now in jail here awaiting trial. Some of the accused have never been located by the authorities, while a few others have been successful in fighting extradition proceedings. In light of the evidence, the men who are charged with fleeing their victims of millions through the medium of fake horse races, prize fights, wrestling matches and pedestrian contests.

Although specific amounts were not mentioned in the indictments, it is said that the amounts lost by the alleged victims of Maybray and his associates exceed a million dollars. The sums lost from $15,000 to $20,000, the latter sum having been placed on a fake horse race, according to the evidence at hand, by a Missouri banker.

Victims in eighteen states, the territory of Alaska, and the Dominion of Canada are named in the indictments, indicating the wide range of territory over which the band are alleged to have pilied their vocation. As a basis of operation, they used, according to the indictment, the cities of Little Rock, St. Louis, Seattle, New Orleans, Denver, Council Bluffs, Burlington and Davenport, to which places it is alleged victims were taken by the numerous "stevedores."

The list of eighty-five alleged victims given in the indictment includes the following: William Dwyer, La Crosse, Wis.; Charles D. Alberts, Sioux City, C. W. Field, Minneapolis; F. X. Roth, Neenah, Wis.; A. Harrington, Minneapolis; Ed. Steger, Hermosa, S. D.; R. A. Frazer, Helena, Mont.; H. Ford, Vancouver, B. C.; John Heger, Sioux Falls; Louis H. C. Margott, Chicago; Thomas Cate, Fond du Lac, Wis.; Joseph W. Leisen, Menomonie, Wis.; C. A. Nelson, Anna, Mich.; Edward Jones, Shanno, Ohio; P. C. Nelson Pratt, Toledo, Ohio; F. Ellison, Kamloops, Canada; and P. W. Whalen, Port Arthur, Canada.

SHEBOYGAN COUNTY BOARD ADJOURNED

Had Session of Twenty Days and Passed Many Important Measures.

Sheboygan, Wis., Dec. 2.—The county board adjourned Wednesday afternoon after rounding out twenty days of hard work. Sheriff Hoehne was cleared Wednesday of charges instituted against him in the Daily Press, by an investigation committee. The editor of the Press, Charles E. Broughton, claimed that the attack on him by a constable, Thanksgiving day, was railroaded by Hoehne.

A special committee, appointed to inspect the county jail to find if any improvements, complying with the directions of the state board of control, reported recommending that a padded cell for female inmates, be built into the county jail.

Ex-Sheriff Klefer was given the floor Wednesday morning to explain several points relating to his claim of $550 which he says is due him for underpaid salaries. He demanded that a paragraph in the proceedings of 1908 which says that he unlawfully drew orders on the county, be stricken from the book. He said if he had committed any such act the "able board and intelligent district attorney would have lost no time in prosecuting him and furthermore these moneys which it is claimed he unlawfully drew would not have been paid to me later."

A resolution of thanks was extended by the board Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Whitten for their service to the county in conducting the county insane asylum for the past 28 years. Mr. Whitten has resigned as superintendent of the asylum. Sheboygan county officers will have to work an hour longer during the day since a resolution by Supervisor Putnam was passed Wednesday morning by the board, providing that the hours of county officials be from 8:30 to 12 and from 1:30 to 4 o'clock, while formerly they were from 9 to 12 and from 2 to 4 o'clock.

MANITOWOC GETS A BIG NEW INDUSTRY

Citizens' Association Booms the City With Startling Success—May Be Harbor of Refuge.

Manitowoc, Dec. 2.—In connection with a plan to boom the city, the first results of which is the landing for the city of a new $100,000 manufacturing industry, a company to manufacture auto appliances, business men of the city will ask congress at its coming session to designate Manitowoc a harbor of refuge and port of entry. The Citizens' association, recently organized with 300 members, has negotiated the location of the new plant which will employ 100 men and guaranteed $200,000 in wages in three years in exchange for a site and factory building. The company expects to be in operation in January.

Fire Endangers Week.
A fire which started from a coal stove in the basement, damaged the Rozinsky furniture store to the extent of several hundred dollars, the building being most damaged. The stock was undamaged except for water and smoke. The absence of wind and the fact that the fire was discovered before it secured much of a start, probably saved an entire block.

SENIORS CHAMPIONS OF THE HIGH SCHOOLFourth Year Eleven Clinched Title by Beating the Sophomores
23 to 2.

The senior class high school football eleven won the game from the sophomores yesterday afternoon, 23 to 2, and with it the championship of the school. The sophomores put up a good game, but the seniors showed better form than in the first game when the two teams tied, and the fourth year men played together better. The seniors made four touchdowns, kicked one goal and made a safety. The sophomores secured their score on a safety. Following the senior-sophomore contest the Juniors and freshmen played a tie game, 0 to 0.

Yesterday's game closed the season of football at the high school. The season just past has not only been a fairly successful one, but it has shown what can be done with a team of light and inexperienced players. The team won a fair share of the games they played and by award of the faculty the ones who took part in the winning games or a majority of them were awarded the right to wear a "J".

Just what the prospects for next year are is a question to be considered.
Five or six of the boys who have been playing with the first team will probably not be here on account of graduating in June and it falls upon the three lower classes to supply the material. That they will not fail to supply the demand appears certain. Of this year's team there will probably be Sullivan, who proved a wonder at and the last season. There is Ryan, the fullback, another good player. Edler and MacDonald have delivered the goods, and Hazen, though light, has played well. Korst, who has played back of the line, is another who should help to make a strong team next year.
Among the possible candidates are Kosh, who played as sub this year,
Mott, another substitute, and Kelly.
Prof. Knudsen showed wonderful skill in running this year's eleven into shape and with him as coach next year and a portion, at least, of the players who were trained under him,
next year's team should be even more successful.

VENUS CONTINUES
A NIGHTLY SHOWBut Her Engagement Soon Begins to Draw to a Close.

There will be a partial eclipse of the sun December 12, visible only in the oceanic region about the south pole.

Venus is still the bright evening
star, according to astronomical data furnished by the official observatory, but is situated rather low in the outwestern sky. The planet reaches its greatest elongation east, or farthest angular distance from the sun, on December 2, after which it will begin to swing back towards the sun.
But for some time yet the planet will continue to increase in brilliancy, as it draws nearer the earth. Mercury passes through superior conjunction on December 3, and will not be in any position for observation the present month. Mars and Saturn still form a brilliant pair high in the western sky during the evening. December 31 the two planets will be in conjunction and Mars will pass by Saturn only a little over 3 degrees to the north. Jupiter is the one bright planet of the morning and is seen at a high altitude in the southeast quarter of the sky in the latter part of the night.

Sunrise and sunset for the new month are:
Sunrise—Dec. 1, 7:31; Dec. 11, 7:19;
Dec. 21, 7:26; Dec. 31, 7:30.
Sunset—Dec. 1, 4:24; Dec. 11, 4:22;
Dec. 21, 4:25; Dec. 31, 4:32.

The times of the moon's phases are: Last quarter, Dec. 4 at 10:12 a.
m.; new moon, Dec. 12 at 1:59 p. m.;
first quarter, Dec. 19 at 8:18 p. m.;
full moon, Dec. 26 at 3:30 p. m.

The principal fixed stars visible in the evening hours during December
are: To the west, Vega, Altair, Cas-
or and Pollux, Aldebaran, the Pleiades, Sirius and Procyon, and the bright stars of the constellation Orion.

INTERMEDIATES TO PLAY BELLOIT FIVEBasketball Game Has Been Secured
For Dec. 15—Another Contest
May Take Place Later.

Physical Director Wheeler of the Y.
M. C. A. has made arrangements for two basketball games to be played with a five from the Beloit association. Mr. Wheeler was in Beloit yesterday to secure games for the intermediate five and in conference with the physical director of the Lino City
"Y". It was decided that one of the games between an intermediate quintet from Beloit and the Janesville intermediates should take place on Dec.
15. The other contest may be played later. Rockford is another opponent

BELMONT MANSION FINISHED.
The above photographs show Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont and their new home in Washington.

Washington, D. C.—For two years
Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont have been seeing vision of life in a real American palace. They have watched the structure grow from its foundations through the dragging months. While in Washington this week the architect promised the Belmonts the home would be ready for occupancy by December 15.
They had hoped to be in their new home on Thanksgiving but the architect decreed that it would not be complete by that time. The mansion occupies a triangle formed by New Hampshire avenue and Eighteenth and H streets, with a 234-foot frontage on the avenue.

It is built of white Indiana limestone in the style of Louis XIV from designs made in Paris by E. Sunkin and constructed under the direction of Horace Trumbauer of Philadelphia. It is three stories in height, with basement and sub-basement. So complete is the home in every detail that it is destined to play an important part in the social life of Washington.
The entrance is by the way of a porte cochere at the south end of the triangle. All the living rooms will be on the first floor. The second floor will be reached by a grand stairway of marble and bronze. The picture gallery which rivals the one in the East room of the White House, is on the second floor. The dining room, saloon and reception room is also on this floor.

ARRIVAL OF LARRY GLASS, THE ATHLETIC COACH, IN "GOING

broad lines, which landed in New York
last season where, at the Belasco
theatre, it held for eight months,
will be shown here by the Shuberts
for the first time next Monday evening,
Dec. 6, at the Myers theatre.
Paul Armstrong and Rex Beach,
the novelists and playwrights, are joint authors of the comedy. Mr.
Beach, it is said, has thrown in all of the local color and types, all of the second order, placed on the "Flying Dutchman" ranch, New Mexico, and half of the characters answer to names which could only be applied to cowboys and half-breeds. Singularly enough there are some who charac-terize the place as a college play, chiefly because the hero is a "rah rah"
boy. There is no disagreement, however, over the main object of the comedy, which is to afford amuse-

GRAHAM'S ARREST IS BASIS OF THE SUIT

Oleomargarine Case Heard Before Milwaukee Federal Court Commissioner.

Due to the arrest of A. E. Graham in this city and the investigation which resulted, the federal internal revenue officers are now working to secure the conviction of several men whom they claim constituted a gang of swindlers who sold colored oleomargarine for butter. The federal officers consider the arrest of Graham most important and the opening wedge in breaking up a gang of clever workers who had done an extensive business in Wisconsin.

Testimony against James H. Davis and Edward Kilmer, charged with selling colored oleomargarine for creamery butter, was taken before Court Commissioner John F. Harper, in Milwaukee, yesterday. Additional witnesses will be heard tomorrow, to which date the hearing was adjourned at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

John Dingle of Chicago, a son-in-law of W. J. Stoxley, Illinois congressman, testified that also ordered at their sales wagon at their Chicago office was sent to "J. H. Dawson," Milwaukee, "I could not identify either of the defendants as the purchaser."

Theodore Harshbarger, foreman of the Goodrich Warehouse, however, testified that he delivered fourteen tubs to one, so labeled, to "J. H. Dawson and A. L. Brown," at 385 Mitchell street. He said Kilmer was one of the men who received the shipment, which was from Moxley Bros., Chicago.

A. E. Graham, who was arrested here, is in jail at Madison awaiting trial on a charge similar to that against Kilmer and Davis. It is charged that he and the two under arrest here co-operated in an extensive buttering business.

Where Properly Labeled. Lawrence Kilmer, deputy collector of internal revenue, Chicago, testified that all the Moxley Bros. shipments of oleo to Milwaukee were properly labeled. Such shipments must be recorded in the collector's office.

A gold watch figures in the case, by it the prosecution hopes to prove that Graham and the other two were associated, though they deny any association. Chief of Police G. M. Appleby testified that Graham gave the watch to Davis. Max Krome, a Milwaukee pawnbroker, testified that Davis pawned the watch in his establishment several weeks ago.

An American Express company employee testified that he received several packages of goods labeled butter to be shipped to Janesville, and that Davis and Kilmer were the shippers. This so-called butter is part of that seized at Janesville and it is alleged, found upon test to be colored oleomargarine.

Puts in an Alibi. The defense claims that Davis was at St. Mary's hospital suffering with an eye ailment from Oct. 18 to Nov. 4. The shipment to Janesville is alleged to have been made Nov. 6, and so Davis could not have been the shipper. Patrick Lohan, an employee at the hospital, however, testified that although Davis was confined in the hospital at the time, he was gone from the institution a part of the time on several days.

CHRISTMAS CARDS FOR SEASON VERY UP-TO-DATE

Greeting Cards Shown in New York Have Latest Designs in North

(Special to the Gazette.)

New York, Dec. 2.—Although Christmas is still several weeks off, the big avenue are already displaying greeting cards. The fads of the moment are illustrated in several of the new designs, the aviation and the North Pole crazes, for example, being typified by an ultra-modern Santa Claus arriving in an airship at the North Pole laden with gifts, which the picture shows him in the act of distributing to his Eskimo children. That the fad of the Teddy bear has not entirely died out is evidenced by another novel card showing a Teddy bear carrying in his mouth a tiny calendar for 1910.

FEAR THAT STRIKE WILL HIT CHICAGO

Trainmen and Officials Are of the Opinion That Chicago Switchmen Will Go Out Too.

All indications, both in regard to reports received from the cities where the striking switchmen have tied up traffic and from what can be learned from those in this city who have talked with the Chicago switchmen, seem to indicate that fears are being entertained that the strike will spread from the Twin Cities, tie up the Chicago yards and even bring in the Trainmen.

That railway officials are preparing for this very contingency was shown this morning when the general managers' committee, representing all the western roads affected by the strike, left St. Paul last night for Chicago. Their special train of six cars passed through Janesville at 8:30 this morning in charge of Conductor Keigher and Engineer Padden. With them was General Manager R. H. Ashton.

The general managers' committee is hastening to Chicago too, because of the threatening attitude of the switchmen who are members of the Switchmen's Union of America. The members of the union, which has precipitated the strike in the northwest, have assumed a distinctly hostile attitude, last night the Chicago union directed that the following telegram be sent to I. G. Rawe, chairman of the general managers' committee:

"The switchmen here demand that general managers meet their subcontractors at the earliest possible date."

This peremptory demand was signed by S. E. Hebeling, first vice president of the Switchmen's Union of America.

The switchmen's union controls but three or four railroads entering Chicago; the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen control the balance. The latter organization is not involved in the present trouble and is not likely to be, but on Friday the chairman of the grievance committee of twenty-one railroads running into Chicago will meet with the wage scale committee to formulate a plan of action in the event their demand for an increase in pay is denied by the railroads, as it is in all probability may be.

Although there have been reports that the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen would strike, President Hawley of that organization does not think that the trainmen will go out. "I would not encourage one," was his statement.

W. G. Lee, grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, while in Chicago yesterday, said that the trainmen have adopted a well-defined policy and that this would be followed.

"In cities where the majority of the switchmen are members of the trainmen's brotherhood they will remain at work, as they have not taken a strike vote," he said.

"In cities where the members are in the minority they will simply seek their jobs as individuals and seek work elsewhere."

Those engineers and trainmen who run into this city from the south and who have had an opportunity to talk with the Chicago switchmen, state that the men are exceedingly restive and dissatisfied and that it would only require a single little incident to make them all walk out. In fact, they do not care whether they work or not.

During the time that the roads have been blocked by the absence of their switchmen, they have not been idle and constant efforts have been made to secure boomers and others who have had a little experience on the road to take the place of the strikers in the northwestern. Yesterday, on one of the northbound trains, there were over sixty rough-looking customers, dressed on "laborer" pattern and traveling for St. Paul and Minneapolis.

What would happen if these men were put to work in the yards and the engine crews refused to work with them is an interesting question.

POPULAR CONDUCTOR MET FATE EARLY THIS MORNING

George Goode of Madison Division Was Killed in Menominee Yards at 7:30.

Conductor George Goode of the Madison division, well known to nearly every engine man and trainman in this city, was killed in the Menominee yards at Madison this morning at half past seven. Whether he came to his death under his own train or whether the recent section of 500, carrying the officials of the road, killed him, is not known. He was found with both legs severed. Goode was one of the most popular conductors on the road and his cheery ways and hearty greeting made him welcome wherever he went. Battered as well as big-bodied, he was all that his name indicates. By his death the road loses another of its old time employees, the backbone of the system. Three or four checked up their last train within the past thirty days. Goode was killed in the yard at Belvidere, and lost all of Goode, at Madison. Their loss leaves a big gap in the thinning ranks of the "old timers."

PREMATURE CONGRATULATIONS

Nearly "Started" Trouble

Machinist "Sonny" Smith of Omaha and Fond du Lac, officiated as judge at a masquerade ball last night and awarded first prize to the young lady wearing a Norwegian costume. He wished to give the first gentleman's prize to his fellow worker, Laurie Hoffman, but was informed just in time that his friend was not entered in the beauty contest. He had invited in a beautiful new opalescent, form-fitting suit, and had the idea of the field faded. "Sonny" thought that he had attracted himself expressly for the occasion and told him that he had the first prize "checked." All that saved the judge from complete humiliation was the fact that the suit might have become damaged during the struggle.

ENGINEER FYFE TOOK EARLY MORNING STROLL FOR NOTHING

The next time Engineer Fyfe is called at night he is going to make the call boy sign an affidavit that he is calling for the C. & N. W. railway. He made the above resolution upon his arrival at the new yards early this morning after an inspiring walk of three miles or more in the cold, gray dawn. Somehow or other, the St. Paul night eddies got tangled in the corridors of the Y. M. C. A. and called Fyfe for an extra south at 2:30. "What engine?" murmured the engineer, sleepily, as he signed the book. "The 1350," replied the night caller, falling through the door and neglecting to state just how his victim was to get out to the yards. "All a new one," and with that he slipped into his clothes and started, in company with his dreamer, for an early morning stroll south. He arrived safely, but what he said when he found that he had been the victim of an unfortunate mischance, was not recorded. The caller was either too sleepy at the time to remember it or else ashamed to repeat it.

According to a bulletin issued by E. H. Wade, efforts are being made to assign certain engines to different runs and keep them on these runs. Among the assignments are, engines 235 and 470 to run 581 and 584.

Engineer Humphrey and Fireman Frederick died up at Janesville last night at 2 p. m. with 584 and left this morning on an extra south at 10:30.

Train 506 was held up again by the strike and the first section did not arrive here until 7:45, over an hour and three quarters late.

Engineer Cole is relieving James Laws on 531 and 541 today.

Dispatcher J. M. Smith reported for work this morning.

Brakemen who have been working on the extra long trains on the Madison division have already begun an agitation for three brakemen on a train.

Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul.

The Italian section gang that has been at work in the yards for some time, received their walking papers last night and their places have been taken by "white men."

Engineer James had switch-engine number 16 in place of the "three-spot" which has been placed in the house for repairs.

Engineer McCarthy had the second switch-engine last night.

Engineer Mead is relieving Engineer Fox on the Mineral Point passenger for a few days.

THE OPTIMIST'S CORNER

Daily Helps to Health and Happiness

By GEORGE F. BUTLER, A.M., M.D.

"The remedy for 'nervousness' and 'nervous prostration' or 'exhaustion,' is an avoidance of their causes; and it is as useless to look for relief in medicine alone, while the causes are in operation, as to prevent the finger from burning as long as it is in the fire. The cure in the latter case must begin with taking it out of the fire. To cure nervous maladies which arise from overwork, it is not necessary merely to stop working, which is rest, but to direct your mind and efforts along other lines. To prevent a country from being devastated by a rising river, not only must a dam be built, but an outlet must be opened in another direction. The natural, safe and efficient means of correcting nervous derangements is to give more rest to the parts deranged or disturbed, and so to change the modes of life as to send out the nervous power constantly being generated in the system through other channels, giving those which are overworked time for recuperation. Next to over-indulgences, or overwork, is an imperfect digestion and assimilation of food. Eat less food; eat plain food; eat regularly; rest your stomach a chance to give your recuperate. Give your overworked brain a rest; make a complete change in your mode of life; improve your general health by outdoor life, regular habits, and cultivate a tranquil, hopeful mind.

CARE AND CAUTION

I do not sacrifice care and caution in my work to save myself time and trouble. The work I do I always finish as well as it can possibly be done. Modern methods, new equipment, and continual study are the things that aid me in giving each patient comfort and thorough satisfaction.

I extract teeth painlessly.

It is worth remembering that an examination and my report cost you nothing.

PETITION HAS HAD THE DESIRED EFFECT

Plea of Businessmen to Council Has Caused Theatre Owners to Silence Phonograph Machines.
The petition signed by the business and professional men of the city, which was to have been presented to the common council to have that body take some action with regard to the phonograph machines used by several of the electric theatres seems to have already had the desired effect. It is noticeable that within the past few nights the usual blaring sound from some of the instruments, which have made the nights hideous, has been missing. Whether or not the owners will discontinue the practice voluntarily or not is a question but in order that they may not at any time begin the practice again the petition will probably be sent to the council.

NO TRACE OF THE
LOST MAIL POUCH

Made Up at Beloit Is Believed to Have Been Stolen From Janesville Depot Saturday Night.

United States Postoffice Inspector J. T. Walker has been here this week investigating the disappearance of a pouch of mail, made up at Beloit, from the C. & N. W. depot at Janesville last Saturday night. Two sacks sent out from the Lino City the same evening disappeared simultaneously but it has since been ascertained that one of them was simply carried to the wrong destination. The one which is supposed to have come to Janesville on train 103 about 11 o'clock is lost to believe, was loaded on a truck and left in waiting for northbound train No. 615 which leaves here shortly after eleven and was taken with Night Bugmaster Charles Davis was at the lunch-counter. Some letters containing small checks and a large consignment of invitations to a forthcoming Beloit wedding were contained in the contents. Thus far no trace of the missing property has been found.

The play, "The Mysteries of New York," and the clever specialties between acts were greatly appreciated by the audience, who applauded the efforts of the company heartily. In the afternoon "Hearts of Tennesses" was repeated to a large audience. The production to be given this evening will be "The Lost Paradise."

ON DRUNKENNESS CHARGES

Alex. Markland and Charles Olson Pleaded "Not Guilty" But Were Convicted After Brief Trials.

Alex. Markland and Charles Olson of Rockford pleaded not guilty to charges of drunkenness proffered against them in municipal court this morning. Their trials were brief and it was quickly shown that both had been very much intoxicated. Fines of $3 and costs were assessed and paid. Olson's face had been badly cut and scratched in some lively encounter. "I certainly was drunk, Your Honor," declared John Burns when his name was reached in the calling of the roll. Mr. Burns was given ten minutes to get out of town. Sam Opsahl could not negotiate $10 and costs and went to jail for 15 days. George Opfal was unable to pay $1 and costs and went to the bastille for seven days.

Secretary J. D. King Says Janesville Show Will Be Biggest in State This Winter.

"The coming show of the Southern Wisconsin Poultry association is going to be the biggest chicken show held in the state this winter," was the significant statement of Secretary J. D. King of the association this morning. Why I am reciting communications from all over northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin for information regarding our coming show and from present indications it is safe to estimate the number of birds which will be exhibited as a thousand to twelve hundred. At any rate we will have accommodations for that number of fowls at any rate.

"This corn exhibit also promises to create considerable rivalry. I know of some twenty-five entries that are being prepared for this feature alone and would not be surprised to see three or four hundred entries. It appears to have struck a popular idea and many of the corn exhibitors will also have fowls at the show as well and vice versa.

"Just now we are arranging for twelve hundred coops, all now ones and will know the latter part of the week relative to them. This will be an added feature of the show and one that will be appreciated by the owners of the exhibits. Some day we will own our own coops or will adopt the coops of the other associations and compel the owners of fowls to bring their birds in their own coops, but this year at least we will have to rent them."

D. T. Helmreich of Jacksonville, Illinois is to act as judge for the exhibit and to his reputation as a judge of fine chickens is well known it will bring many additional entries.

The association has seventy-five active members and aside from the regular prizes has a list of one hundred and fifty special prizes in their catalogue which will appear within a few days.

MANY CHANGES ARE RECOMMENDED

SECRETARY DICKINSON RECOMMENDS MANY CHANGES IN THE ARMY.

WOULD CENTRALIZE TROOPS

Urges Abandonment of Roosevelt Physical Tests—Declares Detailing of Officers from Regular Posts for Special Service is Growing Evil.

Washington, Dec. 2.—In his first annual report, which was made public today, Secretary of War Dickinson recommends to the president many sweeping changes, including that of concentrating troops at forts to be erected adjacent to the principal cities of the country. The abandonment of the Roosevelt physical tests, by which officers are compelled to ride 30 miles in three days, or walk 50 miles in the same time, is urged, and an increase in the number of officers is recommended to remove the growing evil brought about by detailing army officers from their regular posts of duty to special service.

For Army Reorganization.
Among other things suggested by Mr. Dickinson are the following:
The division of the United States into territorial and tactical districts, so that the organized militia of the states may be conveniently combined with the regular army stationed there, in permanent brigades, divisions and corps for instruction and tactical organization.

Promotion on the merit system.
Government control of wireless telegraph.

Encouragement of rifle practice among the citizens and schoolboys.
International treaty on wireless telegraph.

Liberal appropriations for the completion of the fortification projects of the Philippines, Honolulu and Pearl Harbor.

The establishment of a national park at Niagara Falls to preserve its scenic features.

Estimates for 1910.

The secretary made public his estimates to congress for the coming fiscal year, amounting to $35,675,299, or about $8,000,000 less than was appropriated for the present fiscal year.

This amount does not include the estimates for the civil establishment, public works and miscellaneous.

The regular army at the end of October numbered 71,840 men, with 4,200 officers, making a total force of 76,040, a net increase during the year of 3,421. The figures do not include the 3,485 men of the hospital corps.

Of the active officers of the army, the report calls attention to the fact that 709 are detailed to special duty, nearly half of these, or 345, being distributed among the various schools of instruction of the regular establishment or acting as instructors in state educational institutions where a feature is made of military training.

Army Discipline Undiminished.

While there were no serious breaches of military discipline during the year, Secretary Dickinson declares "that there can be no doubt that the discipline and efficiency of troops were lowered by the continued absence of so many company officers and the resulting frequent changes of company commanders."

The remedy for this condition, the report declares, may be found in increasing the number of officers and in the passage of legislation empowering the secretary of war, whenever the occasion demanded, to appoint retired officers to active duty temporarily. Under existing law a retired officer cannot be made subject to orders, but his return to active service is entirely voluntary.

Cooperation of the regular army with the militia of the states is strongly urged.

Unnecessary Accomplishment.
Stella—"Here is a schedule that says you can feed a family on $20 a month."
Bella—"Well, if you have enough brains to do that you can catch a husband with plenty of money."

Contracts Made on Feast Days.

The fixed date for Easter is probably a matter of little concern in the United States, but of great importance in continental Europe, where rent and other contracts are written on such feast days rather than at New Year's or the 1st of May.

Horrible Contingency Averted.

A man in Park avenue deserted his bride after four days because she called on him to button her shoes. He shuddered to think what might have happened had she asked him to button her dress.—New York Herald.

Precious Stones in the Orient.

Sapphires used to be mined in Kashmir, but the mines are now said to be exhausted. The yellow, white, blue and green varieties of sapphires are found in the ruby bearing gravels in Burma. The sapphire is found in considerable quantities in Burma.

As Close as Possible.

"George wanted to get closer to nature," observed Harrigan, "and his new automobile enabled him to do so." "Ah!" rejoined Edie, "you saw him splashing through the country, did you?" "No, but I saw him under the machine, flat on his back."

Its Intent.

As the blanket poster, a yard wide and all wool (to be pulled over the voters' eyes), was unrolled before him, the astute citizen remarked: "This blanket is a regular charity one, for it covers a multitude of sins."

ELECTRIC AND VINCENT RAYS
The use of electricity in adding "Mildred's Toilet" is simply wonderful in its results. This shop has all the modern equipment necessary for work of the very highest class. The Vincent rays are used in bleaching the face, for closing enlarged pores, etc. The Green rays are used in the treatment of the scalp with excellent success, and the silver lined bell electric rays takes the place of sunshine and makes the hair lustrous after shampoo. We are always glad to suggest newer ways of draping the hair to our patrons and to give many little hints and helps for home application.

OUR RECORD BREAKING SALE IS WELL STARTED

The Purchasing Power of Cash Was Never As Great

The opening day was a great educator. People bought heavily—the strong values created quick cash sales. With the money saved on suits and overcoats here, buyers are able to purchase complete outfits of other wearing apparel.

Buyers realize the unequalled opportunities made possible by this sale. They know that all goods are sold under the Ziegler guarantee and that the T. J. Ziegler Company's word is as good as a bond. This sale is to adjust the affairs of the estate of the late T. J. Ziegler. These circumstances make low cash prices absolutely necessary and you profit by these sacrifices.

MILLIONS OF LIVES LOST

An Awful Toll Collected by Consumption. Many Unnecessary Deaths from this Disease.

If people could only understand that catarrh is an internal disease that external applications cannot cure, they would not need to be warned so often about this malady, which, when neglected, proves the way of ruin for consumption at the cost of millions of lives every year. Yet catarrh may be cured, if the right treatment is employed.

Catarrh is caused by a general diseased state of the system which tends to annoy and perhaps seriously local conditions, which may prove a fertile breeding ground for germs of consumption. External remedies give but temporary ease.

The only way to successfully treat catarrh is by employing a medicine which is absorbed and carried by the blood to all parts of the system, so that the mucous membrane or internal lining of the body is toned up and made capable of resisting the infection of consumption and other diseases.

We have a remedy prepared from the prescription of a physician who for thirty years studied and made catarrh a specialty, and whose record was a patient restored to health in every case where his treatment was followed as prescribed. That remedy is REXALL MUCO-TONE. We are so positive that it will completely overcome catarrh in all its various forms, whether acute or chronic, that we promise to return every penny paid us for the medicine in every case where it fails or for any reason does not satisfy the user.

We want you to try REXALL MUCO-TONE on our recommendation and guarantee. We are right here where you live, and you do not contract any obligation or risk when you try REXALL MUCO-TONE on our guarantee. We have REXALL MUCO-TONE in two sizes, for cents and $1.00. Very often the taking of one tablet bottle is sufficient to make a marked improvement upon the case. Of course in chronic cases a longer treatment is necessary. The average in such instances is three $1.00 bottles. Remember you can obtain REXALL MUCO-TONE in Jansville only at our store, The Rexall Store, The South Drug Co.

Keeping cheerful is an easy matter, with the bowels open. Millions carry candy Cascarets. At the first sign of bowel clogging, they take one tablet. They end the trouble in an hour. Thus many dull days are avoided.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

THIS line art of being able to be silly is one that a good many of us need to cultivate.

To be able once in a while to be silly—not elaborately witty or studiously humorous—but thoroughly, healthily, childishly silly, and to be able to stand off and laugh to yourself occasionally, are two valuable abilities.

It is bad, of course, for young people to take themselves and their duties too lightly, but it seems to me that it is almost as bad for them to take themselves too seriously.

I met a very clever and financially successful young bachelor setting forth his requirements for a wife the other day.

As a man in this bachelor's meal ticket would probably be more for the shaver the kind of men that begin with exotisms, have few courses centered through the middle, and end up with a cut glass finger-bowl, I fancy he is the sort of person whose requirements may be interesting to my feminine readers.

"I don't ask for beauty," he said, "nor money. I decidedly don't want an obviously intellectual woman. But what I do insist upon in a wife is, that she shall know how to be silly once in a while. In short, that she shall have enough brains to be able to forget occasionally that she has any."

Good sense is a fine thing to have, but the people who are stuck so full of it that they forget that nonsense also has its place in life are making a big mistake.

"A little nonsense now and then, is relished by the best of men," is the quotation, pointing out, as you see, that it is the "best of men" who know enough to appreciate nonsense. The second-enters fancy they are above it, while, as a matter of fact, they aren't up to it.

Nonsense is a quiet doctor, too. The man or woman who doesn't know how to be silly misses one of the biggest recreative forces in the world.

Anyone who is perpetually holding himself just so, in order to maintain his dignity, is apt to become mentally cramped from keeping in the one position, and lose his mental suppleness.

Just as the physical abandon of laughter relaxes the muscles of the face, so the mental abandon of a good healthy fit of silliness relaxes the muscles of the mind.

Do you take yourself too seriously? Don't just read that over mechanically, but answer it. Do you, now?

And do you know how to be silly? If you don't, and aren't past the learning age, why don't you go and find somebody who does, and learn?

Ruth Cameron

Evening Gown Of Silk Crepe.

A beautiful evening gown with clinging drapery and classical lines is presented above. This was made of cream silk crepe—a material lending itself admirably to the draping—and combined with rare old lace. Outlining the neck and waist and top of cuff was a cord of burnt orange velvet, which material was also used for the skirt, which is fastened at the back by an antique buckle of gold. The bodice is slightly full in the back at the neck and cut in one with the skirt. The skirt is drawn quite closely around the figure and gracefully knotted over an underskirt of the crepe.

EACH TON OF SUGAR
SHORT 13 POUNDS

Loss of Duty on 5,880 Pounds Every Hour. Charged by Government in Trial.

New York, Dec. 2.—In the trial of James F. Bendoric and five other former employees of the American Sugar Refining Company in the United States circuit court, the government sought to show that through the haste and bustle of the immense business transacted on the Williamsburg docks was a fruitful opportunity for fraud.

David Fragner, a customs inspector, and once an assistant government weigher, testified that at a busy time two trucks a minute passed over a single set of scales, or eight to the minute on the four sets in use there for each truck of the day.

Each hour weighed a ton, and each half ton, the government will contend, was weighed 13 pounds short, by the secret manipulations of government employees, who, it is charged, were paid cash by the sugar company for the evasion of customs duties.

If the game ran properly the government stood to lose its dues on 5,880 pounds of sugar every hour.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Another shake-up in the New York customs house, as a result of the investigation of the conditions at that port, was announced at the treasury department.

Inspector Timothy D. Lane has been suspended on charges and the department has approved the discontinuance of the services of ten assistant weighers.

WOMAN KILLED IN R. R. STATION

Agent Will Not Divulge What He Knows About Affair.

Havana, Ill., Dec. 2.—The continued silence on the part of Thomas Rayston, telegrapher and agent for the Illinois Central Railway Company at Easton, a village near here, adds mystery to the shooting affair which occurred in his office.

Mrs. William Ischmael, wife of a former restaurant keeper, who three weeks ago became a raving maniac, went to the station to send a message. Rayston was alone in the office at the time. Less than half an hour later he ran from the station and to the office of Dr. Grant, tossing his keys to W. H. Williamson as he passed, and shouting instructions to go and lock the station door at once.

Williamson found the body of the woman on the floor in a pool of blood and a bullet wound from a .22-caliber revolver one inch above the heart. Rayston positively refused to describe how the shooting occurred or what led up to it.

BAR GOVERNOR FROM DINNER

Is Persona Non Grata Because of His Liquor Ideas.

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 2.—Because he ordered the prosecution of the Topeka club on account of alleged violations of the prohibitory law in maintaining the locker system of handling liquors, Gov. Stubbs has been barred from attending a dinner to be given at the club to-night. The dinner is to be given to the supreme court justices.

The club directors met and adopted a resolution announcing that the governor was persona non grata, and asked that the invitation to him be withdrawn.

The Topeka club is the largest and best known of Kansas clubs. Gov. Stubbs formerly was a member, but withdrew when the club decided to abolish the locker system.

TAFT FINISHES HIS MESSAGE

Denies Himself to Callers That He May Complete Task.

Washington, Dec. 2.—President Taft has put the finishing touches on his first regular annual message to congress. Denying himself to callers, the president devoted his entire time to his task.

He remained in his private apartments at the executive mansion and did not go to his offices during the usual working hours. Speaker Cannon, who came to the White House to "pay his respects" to the president, as he said all good Americans should always do, upon finding that Mr. Taft was not at the executive offices made no effort to see him.

Demarest Tied with Sutton.

New York, Dec. 2.—Calvin Demarest put a crimp in the championship aspirations of Harry Climo in their match of the three-cornered tie with George Sutton for the 18.2 ball line championship at Madison Square Garden concert hall. Demarest beat the Quaker through a superb finish by a score of 500 to 388.

Find Second Body in Well.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 2.—Portions of a second body have been found in the abandoned well on the ranch of H. C. Crinklaw, near here, in which the skeleton of a man with a bullet hole in the skull was found two weeks ago. The water in the well will be pumped out and the well will be examined.

Negro Burned at Stake.

Cochran, Ga., Dec. 2.—John Howard, a negro preacher, who shot and fatally wounded W. B. Booth near here, was captured five miles from here and burned at a stake.

Killed Trying to Stop Runaway.

Logansport, Ind., Dec. 2.—Trying to stop a runaway team, Edward Bartholomew, a farm hand, 45 years old, was run over and killed here to-day.

Sun spots, those mysterious solar become so large in the last few days

interest and making careful observations,
but declined to hazard any predictions

WM. TRIPP WAS
GUEST OF HONOR

AT REUNION OF FIVE SCRANTON
PIONEERS.

MEET AFTER FIFTY YEARS

Interesting Reminiscences Mark Meeting of Old Settlers Whose Ages
Total 411 Years.

William Tripp, almost four score
and ten years old, and for many years
one of the best known of Rock county's pioneers, recently participated in a unique reunion at Scranton, Pa.,
when Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Atherton gave a dinner to old men in honor of Mr. Tripp. Those present, the sum of whose ages totaled 411 years, were:
William Tripp, aged 89 years; Dr.
Harry Roberts, aged 83 years; Amos McDonald, aged 87 years; William Atherton, aged 73 years; J. L. Atherton, aged 72 years.

In describing the reunion, the Scranton Republican goes on to state that these gentlemen had not met together for over half a century, and many were the reminiscences and tales of the olden days, when they and the country were young.

Mr. Tripp was born in the old Tripp homestead on the west side of the city of Scranton. He married Della Thomas and with her emigrated to Wisconsin in 1822, after selling the homestead for $75. He is now paying $9 per ton for coal which he sold at a penny a ton while it was in the ground.

Mr. Tripp was the son of Stephen Tripp, who, with his father, a Revolutionary soldier, emigrated to Providence
from Rhode Island in 1780 on horseback.

They built the first house in Providence in 1786, the house standing near the spot where now stands the Mt. Pleasant breaker, and near it was built the first distillery in the valley.

The first store ever kept in Providence
was kept in this house by Carpenter & Cox, and also the first election in 1813 was held there. Joshua Griffin, Sr., and Joshua Griffin, Jr., were the only democrats voting, the rest being all federalists.

In those days the town commissioners went about from house to house to hear complaints as to the assessments and to correct errors that had been made. The school teachers made out their own bills pro rata and collected them from the patrons. If any were unable to pay their children were placed in what was known as the Pamper's bench, with only such care as the teacher cared to bestow.

William Tripp's father built in 1775
the first bridge across the Lackawanna river, near where the gas house now stands. When the four-horse stage began running over to Harrison (Scranton)
this bridge became a necessity.

The road from Lackawanna avenue to the bridge was well staked with overgrown trees and was usually very slippery in the winter time. At one time the team became unmanageable and slid off the bridge, which had no railings, and the driver was injured and three of the horses killed.

The first drug store ever kept in Harrison in 1863 was kept by Charles Fuller and Dr. Throop, in a private house. It stood opposite the place where is now the Laurel Line passenger station. Dr. Throop kept a small livery in the rear of the drug store.

There were no houses nor any other buildings along the whole length of Lackawanna avenue, only a long line of scrub oak and large buildings.

The next house was the Sylvanus Fellows' house on the west side of the river, corner of Seventh and Scranton streets. The house is still standing, and is the oldest house in Scranton proper.

The first colored man in that city was Jack Hardwell, who came from Connecticut in 1830. He drilled the youths of the community in military tactics and one of his commands was to "advance two steps backward."

Those and many other anecdotes were related at the party and the afternoon passed quickly for the old friends of three score years ago.

Mr. Tripp has been quite a politician. He has attended three presidential conventions, helped to nominate Lincoln and had a complimentary seat in the McKinley and Taft conventions.

The first vote was cast for Henry Clay and he voted at seventeen presidential elections, never missing one.

Mr. Tripp still claims a small interest in the Tripp estate, which he wont cast for the purpose of inspecting. He expects to return to Wisconsin soon.

using a smoked glass," said Professor Edwin B. Frost. "They may cause magnetic storms, but they are of no significance, as many persons seem to think. At sunset it is possible to see the spots without using a glass."

respective names hereto, do hereby request that the name of (name candidate) of (state residence), be placed on the official ballot as a candidate for nomination for (mayor or councilman) at the primary election to be held in such city on the Tuesday of October 19, 1910. We further state that we know him to be a man of good moral character and qualified in our judgment for the duties of such office, and that residence not being required, he is otherwise a qualified elector.

Any such petition shall be open to the inspection of the public, and shall be verified by the city clerk on order of the council or on petition of five per centum of the entire vote cast for all candidates for mayor at the last municipal election, and to this end the council shall allow the clerk extra assistance if necessary.

Immediately upon the expiration of the time for filing such statements and petitions for candidates, the city clerk of such city shall cause to be published for three successive days in all the daily newspapers published in such city, or if there be no daily newspaper, in two issues of any other newspaper, in proper form, the names of the persons as they are to appear upon the primary ballots; and the clerk shall thereupon cause the primary ballots to be printed over his signature.

The names of the candidates for mayor arranged alphabetically shall be placed first on the official ballot, with a square at the right for the voter's cross (X), and immediately following the word "Mayor" at the top of the words "Vote for one".

Following these names likewise arranged shall appear the names of the candidates for councilmen and immediately following the word "Councilman" the words "Vote for . . ." (stating the number to be elected). The ballots shall be printed upon plain white paper, and shall have no party designation or mark whatever.

Section 925m-207. 1. All provisions of the statutes relating to city primary and general elections and inconsistent with the provisions of these sections shall apply to such elections for cities reorganized under these sections, the same as to cities organized under general law.

2. The terms of office for officers so elected shall begin on the third Tuesday in April next succeeding their election, at which time the term of office of any mayor or alderman of such city theretofore elected shall end.

Section 925m-208. A city so reorganized shall be governed by its council, consisting of the mayor and councilmen elected as hereinbefore provided, and such council shall have all the powers and perform the duties had and exercised by the mayor and council and the several administrative and executive officers, boards, and commissions of such city, whether its former organization existed under general or special law.

3. The mayor shall be president of the council and have a vote, but no veto power.

4. A majority of the members of the council shall constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of such quorum shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution, or ordinance.

5. Upon every vote, the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded, and every motion shall be reduced to writing and read before the vote is taken.

Section 925m-209. 1. The council may create any general department of city affairs, such as (a) public health

public improvements; (d) parks, recrea-

(e) public charities and corrections;
and designate one of its members as the head thereof; but such head may be changed whenever it appears that the public service would be benefited thereby.

2. At its first meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the council shall elect, by majority vote, a city clerk, corporation counsel, controller, treasurer, superintendent of streets, and such other officers and assistants as are necessary to the efficient conduct of the affairs of the city and shall fix the terms of service and salaries of all such officers.

3. Any officers or assistants appointed or elected by the council may be removed by vote of the majority
